

Tomboys, Butches, Trans and BDSM Practisers, Versions of female masculinity, is an experimental video documentary produced by visual artist Elena Toxic.

It is a short-film that narrates the individual versions of masculinity of Delfy, Emmanuelle, Leticia and Dita, based on their real testimonials.

Visually integrates painting and animated photography as well as video art, and a performance for the end credits that creates the cover for the film. Viruta, a FTM transgender, created the music.
